Dear Mr. Richie,

Thank you for writing to Lackawanna County with your request for information pursuant to the Pennsylvania Right-to-Know law.

On September 22, 2026, you requested the following:

“Under the Pennsylvania Right-to-Know Law, 65 P.S. § 67.101 et seq., I request electronic copies of the records below. A completed Standard Right-to-Know Request Form is attached; the numbered list here is the full description of records.

1. An electronic export (CSV, Excel, or whatever electronic format the Assessment Office's iasWorld system already produces) of the real property assessment roll for every parcel in the City of Scranton, in these versions:
 - a. the roll certified on or about November 14, 2025 for tax year 2026 (reassessed values), as certified to the City of Scranton for 2026 billing;
 - b. the roll as it currently stands, if it differs from (a) because of court appeals or other changes after certification;
 - c. the roll certified for tax year 2025 (1968 base year).

For each parcel, the following fields, where they are maintained:

- parcel identifier (PIN and map/parcel number);
- municipality and school district;
- property class / land-use code;
- land assessed value, building (improvement) assessed value, and total assessed value;
- exempt value and exemption code (full and partial), and taxable value;
- homestead / farmstead exclusion approval status, and the year approved;
- property (situs) address;
- owner name and owner mailing address;
- lot size / acreage;
- whether an informal review, Board of Assessment appeal, or Court of Common Pleas appeal was filed, its status or decision, its decision date, and the values before and after the appeal.

2. The certified total of taxable assessed value that the County certified to the City of Scranton for tax year 2026, and any revised or supplemental certification issued after it.

3. The code tables or data dictionary needed to read the fields above.”

After conducting a good faith search of all records in the County’s possession, custody or control pursuant to Section 901 of the RTKL, the County has partial records responsive to your request. RTKL 65 P.S. § 67.901.

Enclosed, please fill out the enclosed Tax Assessment/Tax Claim Records Request Form for our I.T. Department. GIS data, bulk property tax assessment data and/or tax delinquency requests fall under "specialized documents" and are billed at the actual technical cost of production.

Please see Section 705 of the RTKL, as an agency is not required to create a record which does not currently exist or to compile, maintain, format or organize a record in a manner in which the agency does not currently do so. 65 P.S. § 67.705.

You have the right to appeal this partial denial in writing to: Office of Open Records, 333 Market St., 16th Floor, Harrisburg, PA 17101-2234. Appeals can also be filed online at the Office of Open Records website, <https://www.openrecords.pa.gov>. If the Requester chooses to file an appeal you must do so within 15 business days of the mailing date of the agency’s response. See 65 P.S. § 67.1101. Please note that a copy of the original RTKL request, the agency’s extension notice (if applicable), and this denial letter should be included when filing an appeal.

Please be advised that this correspondence will serve to close this record with our office as permitted by law.

Sincerely,

Traci K. Harte
